Top Business Destinations of Türkiye

ANTALYA

Antalya, a city on the Mediterranean coast of southwestern Türkiye, is the Turkish capital of international tourism and one of the world's top tourist destinations. Antalya features more than 300 five-star hotels, 600.000 beds, and a seating capacity of more than 175.000 for congresses and conventions. Antalya International Airport was awarded the highest distinction among airports in the 20-25 million passengers per year category. Antalya is known for its stunning mountainous ranges, breath-taking nature, and the eye-catching contrasts between the historic and modern neighbourhoods of the city. It offers outstanding tourism infrastructure, beautiful and luxurious resorts, and unpolluted beaches. Here you will find deluxe ultra-all-inclusive hotels, the perfect venues for association and corporate events with opportunities for excellent social programs, and 24-hour service that allows networking and business discussions to continue non-stop day and night.

İZMİR

Once known as the ancient harbour city of Smyrna, İzmir is now the third most populated city in Türkiye. For centuries, it has been home to different cultures, religions, and civilizations. Throughout history, İzmir has been a major commercial centre on the Aegean coastline of Anatolia.

İzmir is among the leading contributors to the Turkish economy. The trade, industry, and tourism sectors are lively in the city. İzmir is the city of olives, figs, and grapes, and the land of natural, organic, and fresh Aegean cuisine that forms the soul of its culture and modern gastronomy. The city is home to many top hotels, a large variety of top-quality restaurants, exciting shopping venues, and a temperate climate that makes it the ideal place to hold a meeting or conference throughout the year.

İSTANBUL

İstanbul is the meeting point of the world. As the capital of the 3 empires, it has a history of more than 8500 years, unique geography spanning continents and inclusiveness from different ethnicities and cultures that have lived together for centuries. İstanbul first secured its place in the "Top 10 Congress Destinations" in 2010, hosting 109 congresses according to the International Congress and Convention Association (ICCA). With seven purpose-built convention centres, three exhibition centres, over 200.000 bed capacity and over 220 four-star and five-star hotels, İstanbul has the capacity to host any type of event. From incentives to 30.000 participant association meetings, İstanbul is proud to have hosted an extensive list of high-level and successful events over the years.

CAPPADOCIA

Located in Türkiye's Central Anatolia region, Cappadocia is famous for its unusual landscape of rock formations. It is the result of the erosion of lava from ancient volcanoes erupted millions of years ago, and the hot lava formed some of the most fantastic rock formations in the planet. Cappadocia's natural rock shelters were home to many ancient civilizations. Some townships in Cappadocia consisted of underground houses, churches, passages, and chambers carved out of volcanic rock caves. Today, they function as cave hotels and open-air museums.

Cappadocia is the perfect boutique destination for incentive groups seeking something unique and unforgettable. It offers activities such as hot-air balloon ride in early morning to watch the sunrise across the mystical landscape, or an outdoor breakfast in the valley involving local life.

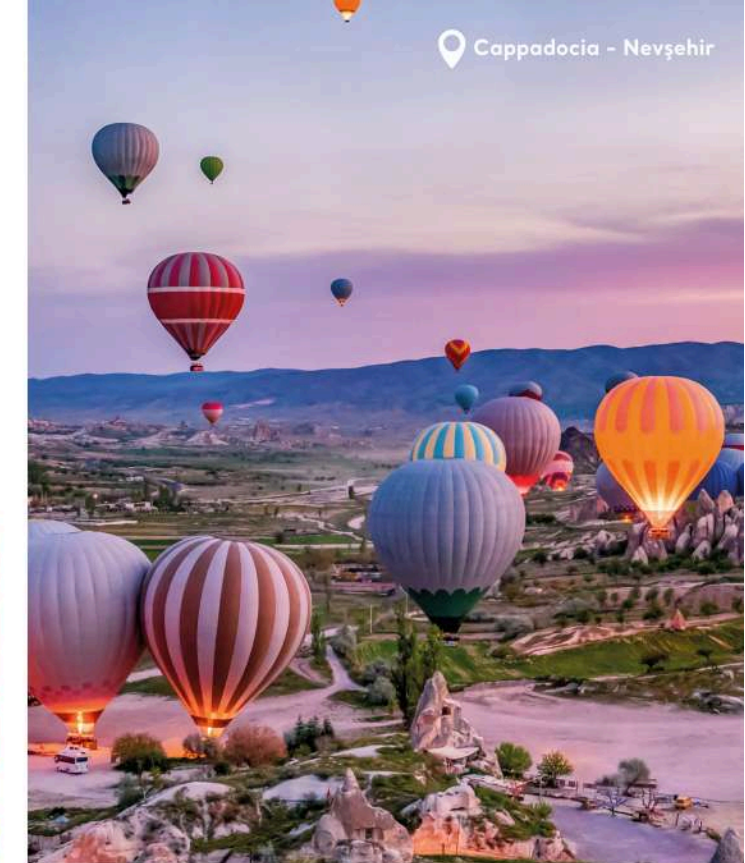

BODRUM

Bodrum is a port town that is famous for its luxury hotels, beach clubs, food, pretty houses, colourful nightlife, and abundance of superyachts drifting in its turquoise waters. It has seen a recent boom of exclusive five-star hotels, including luxurious beach hotels and resorts, boutique hotels, and wellness and spa resorts of world-famous accommodation brands. Bodrum is recently becoming a popular meetings and incentive destination in the Aegean.

Known for housing the Mausoleum of Halicarnassus, aka the monumental Tomb of Mausolus one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the city calls for all history buffs traveling for business. The Bodrum Castle, overlooking the harbour and the marina, houses the Museum of Underwater Archaeology and hosts several cultural festivals throughout the year.

Bodrum represents Türkiye's turquoise coast at its most vibrant hues and lively nightlife, making it a fantastic destination for the business travellers who are looking to relax after a long day of meetings.

Safety First: Safe Tourism Certificate

All guests can travel comfortably and safely in Türkiye thanks to the Safe Tourism Certification program which was established in response to COVID-19. Prepared in accordance with general instructions and guidelines published by the Turkish Ministry of Health, the program rewards restaurants, hotels, and other facilities categorized in seven main titles. These are Accommodation, Food and Beverage, Culture, Art and Congress, Sea Tourism/Cruise Ports, Theme Parks, Ski Lifts and Tour Transfer Vehicles. The facilities are evaluated in accordance with the criteria for international health and safety standards to be certified.
